ATTITUDE OF GIRL SCOUTS DEFENDED

Mrs. Nash Surprised to Hear of Criticisms of Women.

WON'T GRANT DEMANDS

The Narberth Girl Scouts, who were criticised last week in the meeting of Borough Council by a group of women present, have risen in defense of their position. Two letters, one from Mrs. Ruth Nash, the leader, and the other from Scout Ruth Hopkins, are printed this week.

The delegation at Council meeting appeared to request the authorities to open the Girl Scout room for meetings of other civic bodies, such as the Needlework Guild, League of Women Voters, etc. In the course of the discussion, as reported last week, the Scouts were the targets of critical remarks by several of the petitioners.

Mrs. Nash's letter, which refers to the agreement under which the Scouts obtained their attractive headquarters, follows:

Dear sir:

"It was with the greatest surprise that I read the news article appearing in last week's issue of 'Our Town' indicating selfishness as the only accomplishment of the Narberth Girl Scouts after five years of activity in the community.

"The exclusive use of the western section of the building in question was definitely given to the Narberth Girl Scouts as long as they existed by written agreement between the donors of the building and the borough authorities. (See minutes of Council meeting August 10, 1925). Therefore it is indeed puzzling to read in 'Our Town' that the Girl Scouts are selfish in using their building in exact accordance with the written agreement.

"I would like to state publicly that to my knowledge the Narberth Girl Scouts have never annoyed anyone through 'rowdiness, shouting or throwing water out of the windows,' and if such a preposterous situation has ever existed why was it never brought to the attention of anyone in charge or even to those causing the disturbance?

"One scarcely expects girls from the age of 10 to 15 to act like grown women, nor would it be natural, but to the present time I have never had a single complaint similar to those made in 'Our Town.'

"It is certainly discouraging at the end of five years' volunteered service in an organization of such

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Today is the big day in Philadelphia with the scouts. The Philadelphia scouts are welcoming Colonel Lindbergh and the Delaware and Montgomery county scouts are holding their reunion at the Academy of Music. This reunion is an annual affair and planned a year ahead of time and that is why our scouts can not also welcome Lindbergh. Perhaps, however, he will be prevailed upon to stop in at the academy to greet us.

Two weeks ago patrol contests were held in signalling and first aid. First aid was won by Tiger Patrol, Howard Whitney, leader. The Eagle Patrol with Jay Thomas, leader, came in second. The signalling tests won by the Silver Fox Patrol, Howard Wilson, leader, with the Tiger Patrol second. Last week camping contest with tent pitching. Not only had the boys to put up the tents, but they had to build a campfire and cook. Al Lambert and Howard Wilson were the winners.

Each week similar contests are planned and the boys are much interested and giving earnest attention to their studies. Each meeting a rigid inspection is given and it is surprising to note how the boys have spruced up in their attention to details. These inspections all help count for points on the gold, silver and bronze medals that are to be awarded at the end of the season.

MERCHANTS TO MEET

The October meeting of the Narberth Board of Trade will be held Wednesday at 6.30 at the Brynwood Manor Inn. Supper will precede the meeting, as usual.

H. K. Strickler, of Narberth, will speak on "Accounting for the Retail Merchant." Mr. Strickler is treasurer of Ford & Kendig, of Philadelphia. John F. Bischoff, of Ambler, will also speak on the installation of accounting systems in small businesses.

The federation territory covered by the activities of its member agencies embraces the city of Philadelphia in its entirety together with virtually all of Delaware county, the entire Main Line suburban section, and a wide area extending beyond the northern city limits.

The local campaign will be under the chairmanship of Daniel Leitch, who has enlisted a goodly corps of workers to canvass the town. Up to Thursday night 20 had been signed up and replies from others were expected before the campaign opens officially Monday.

COMMUNITY CLUB IN FIRST MEETING

Reciprocity Luncheon Draws Good Attendance in Spite of Rain.

MANY GUESTS PRESENT

Proving themselves enthusiastic club women in spite of the inclement weather, more than 100 members and guests of the Women's Community Club attended the reciprocity luncheon and opening meeting of the club year of 1928 held at Elm Hall, Tuesday.

This was the first meeting that the new president, Mrs. C. Arley Farmer, has conducted, and her ease and charm of manner augers well for the work of the club for the coming year. After the invocation the first speaker of the afternoon, Mrs. Maurice R. Snyder, chairman of juniors for the southeastern district of Pennsylvania, stressed the inter-dependence of every one to others in their daily and club lives and especially, she said, in these days of tempus fugit as it has never fledged before; that we can hope only through our juniors to hold the place in the sun we now occupy.

Mrs. A. B. Ross, a past president of the club and now county president of Montgomery county, was greeted by the women standing and singing the County Song. Mrs. Ross spoke on "the place of the county work in our club life." She said, "The county is the link between the General Federation, the State Federation and the individual club and should fill, as does the individual club to its community, a broader constructive work in the county." Her special aim is to complete the Mary Morris Hamilton Loan Scholarship fund, a fund given to aid some deserving girl in Montgomery county toward securing a college education, and to bring about remuneration to prisoners for their labor while serving sentence in the county.

Mrs. Charles I. Purnell, president of the Hathaway-Shakespeare Club of Philadelphia, one of the outstanding club women of this district, took as her theme the "seven ages of women," and proved conclusively that each age has a vital meaning in the rounded out life. She ended by giving an original humorous poem on the "woman who could not say no."

The last speaker, Mrs. Richard J. Hamilton, vice president for the Southeastern District of Pennsylvania Women, spoke in a rhythmic way of club ethics, the place that

FORM AUTOMOBILE TRADE ASSOCIATION

New Trade Body Numbers 23 Dealers in 25 Makes of Cars.

PLAN M. L. AUTO SHOW

With the election of officers and announcement of plans for a local automobile show, the Main Line's latest trade body was formed this week. At a meeting in Casa del Rea, in Haverford, Monday night, 23 dealers, representing 18 firms from Cynwyd to Wayne, formed the Main Line Automobile Dealers' Association.

Allan C. Hale, Ardmore and Wayne Buick dealer, was elected president; William Madden, vice president; Henry T. Brown, secretary, and John T. Dunn, treasurer.

Nine dealers were appointed on a committee to make plans for a Main Line Automobile Show. They will make a report at a meeting to be held Monday at Casa del Rea.

Members of the committee are as follows: Ralph French, R. E. Springer, George L. Barrett, Henry T. Brown, William Madden, John T. Dunn, Lloyd Gheim, B. S. Baseler and Albert Siegelman.

Twenty-three dealers attended Monday's meeting, representing 18 of the 22 automobile firms on the Main Line, handling 25 makes of cars.

BUILDING NEW SHED

Railroad Completing Additional Shelter on South Side.

The Pennsylvania railroad has nearly completed the erection of a new shelter shed on the south side of the station at Narberth. The new section is being put up to the west of the old part.

It is stated that this is a temporary measure adopted until the railroad formulates a policy for the south side station and yards. It is probable that the freight yard will be moved to Wynnewood or Ardmore, in which case other changes would follow.

Announcement of the plans will be made, it is believed, within a few weeks. In the meantime the length of the local trains has increased to such an extent that more platform and shed space is essential. The small shelter on the south side has been the subject of criticism for a number of years, as it is hardly adequate to protect the passengers at the busy times of the day.

MOTHERS' COUNCIL MEETS

Nineteen mothers of children in the 5th A grade of the Narberth Public Schools met Miss Timlin, the grade teacher, after the close of school on last Monday in the second of the series of "Know Your School" meetings arranged by the Narberth Mothers' Council. The keen interest of both teacher and parents and their pleasure in becoming better acquainted, so that all can work together for the good of the children, was clearly apparent and very gratifying to those inside the school and outside, who had the meeting in charge.

After all those present had had the opportunity to talk informally with Miss Timlin and with each other, light refreshments were served under the direction of Mrs. Nash, hospitality chairman of the Mothers' Council.

Both parents and teachers are looking forward with lively interest to Education Week, early in November, when a number of meetings, arranged by the council, will enlist the co-operation of a number of other civic organizations in promoting the progress of the Narberth schools.

TO MOVE ACROSS STREET

Announcement was made Wednesday that Walter G. Case has rented through Durbin and Howard the vacant store at 241 Haverford avenue, directly opposite his electric and radio shop. After alterations of the windows and erection of partitions in the new store, the Narberth Electric Shop will leave its present address at 250 Haverford avenue, and move across the street on December 1.

Heads Boy Council

Edward A. Carlson, of Ardmore, newly-elected President of the Main Line Boy Council. He has been chief organizer of the movement which will co-ordinate thirty clubs, churches and schools interested in boy work.

NARBERTH HAS A PARALYSIS SCARE

Not Yet Sure if Diagnosis Was Wrong or if Serum Effected Cure.

SCHOOL IS FUMIGATED

Narberth, like Lower Merion, has suffered an infantile paralysis scare and for the past week borough health authorities have been busy denying that there is a general outbreak of the disease among the Narberth children. While Lower Merion definitely established that its "paralysis case," discovered a month ago in West Manayunk, was meningitis, Narberth authorities are still uncertain whether or not the borough case was one of paralysis. If it were, however, it seems to have been cured.

The Narberth scare began a week ago when "Sonny" Thayer, member of a family recently moved into Narbrook Park, was stricken at 1 o'clock in the morning. The symptoms were those of infantile paralysis and the boy was immediately removed to the University Hospital, where a serum was administered. Either the serum did the work or the case was wrongly diagnosed. At any rate no paralysis set in.

In the meantime all precautions were taken by the Narberth health authorities. The Thayer boy's school books were burned and over the week-end the Narberth School on Sabine avenue, where the boy was a student, was fumigated.

The school fumigating gave rise to reports that there was a general outbreak of the disease in the borough. These rumors were kept alive when several other youngsters in the borough with the same nickname as "Sonny" Thayer were confused with him and were also reported to have been attacked by the disease. These reports were all investigated and found baseless.

The Thayer case was reported to the State Board of Health, but as it came from the University Hospital it was listed as a city case. A full report of the matter was made last week to the State board by Dr. George A. Sloan, president of the Narberth Board of Health.

SUPPER NEXT MONTH

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church of Narberth will hold their annual sour kroust supper on Thursday, November 17, in the Sunday school room of the church at Narberth and Woodbine avenues. The doors will be opened at 6.30 and if you like a good sour kroust supper with all the "fixin's" it can be had for only 65 cents.

Also keep in mind the bazaar they will hold on December 3, where your Christmas shopping can be done without the fuss of going into the city.

LADIES' AID TO MEET

The October meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society will be held at the home of Mrs. Stoney McLinn, 503 Kenilworth road, Merion, at 8 o'clock. They urge a large attendance as there will be matters of importance to discuss.

CARLSON TO HEAD NEW BOY COUNCIL

Officers and Directors Are Chosen at Meeting Wednesday.

TO HAVE LARGE SCOPE

Edward A. Carlson, of No. 32 West Montgomery avenue, Ardmore, was, Wednesday night, elected president of the recently organized Main Line Boy Council.

Mr. Carlson has acted as temporary chairman and chief organizer of the movement since its first inception this spring. He is chief Scout Executive of the Delaware-Montgomery Counties Council, and was formerly identified with the Philadelphia Boy Council.

Henry L. Reinhold was elected first vice president and Harry Bare, second vice president. The secretary will be H. A. Buchler, and the treasurer, Robert J. Boyd. Former State Representative Benjamin H. Ludlow was elected attorney.

The four directors-at-large are Ralph A. Doran, Dr. George P. Yocum, Eugene W. Baldwin and C. B. Pennypacker, high school principal. These directors, with the officers, will constitute the Executive Committee, who will meet each month to carry on the activities of the Council.

The board of directors, to meet three times a year, will be made up of one representative of each of the member organizations. There will be approximately 30 members of this group, the personnel of which is nearly completed.

Not only will the new organization take charge of Boy Week, which met with considerable success this spring, but it will handle all phases of boy work throughout the year through a number of committees. Among these features will be Big Brother work, Employment, Vocational Advice, Hobbies, Student Loans, etc.

The Council itself will include the members of the two official groups, plus a large membership of citizens at large interested in boy work. The Council will meet once a year, in March, and will give its support to the big Boy Week program each spring.

The scope of the new organization is so great that, when fully organized, it will probably be the largest civic group in the suburbs. Its purpose will not be to take over the work of any existing body, but rather to co-ordinate boy work through the appointed representatives.

The present scope of the Council is designed to cover only Lower Merion Township and the borough of Narberth. Extension of territory beyond the Overbrook-Rosemont section will not be attempted until all details are worked out in actual practice.

D. A. R. MEETS

An unusually interesting meeting of the Dr. Benjamin Rush Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution of Narberth, was held at 11 A. M. on Saturday, October 8. Since it was the first meeting after the summer vacation there were many reports including that of the State conference held at Bedford Springs in September. The regent, Mrs. Irwin, reported that the quota for the Washington Memorial Window and the per capita tax for Ellis Island, the Manual and National Defense had been paid in full. Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock, followed by a Caroline Scott Harrison program and an inspiring address by the State Regent, Mrs. N. Howland Brown.

BAZAAR POSTPONED

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Narberth Methodist Episcopal Church desires to announce that their bazaar, which for the past seven or eight years has been held on the first Saturday of December, will not be held at the usual time this year.

Out of courtesy to the ladies of the Lutheran Church, who have taken their date, they will select another date which will be announced later.

ERRATIC COAL

Telephone misunderstandings caused some amusing and strange antics in coal prices in our advertising columns of two weeks ago.

The advertising agents for the J. E. Kunkel company, just as we were going to press, telephoned a list of coal prices, to be added to their regular advertising space. In the conversation, however, the signals were crossed, and as a result all four classes of coal exchanged prices among themselves.

The correct figures for charge prices, as shown in the ad this week, are egg, $14.50; stove, $15; nut, $14.50, and pea, $11.50.

The senior class and members of the class of 1927 headed a procession through the school grounds. The exercises included the recital of "Trees" by Joyce Kilmer and singing of hymns and patriotic airs.

BUICK SALES GO UP

Buick sales since the introduction of new models in July have shattered all records in Buick history, Allan C. Hale, local dealer, has announced. The July, August and September total this year is 82,955 cars, as compared with 70,941 cars sold during the corresponding period in 1926.

"The average monthly increase during the last three months, over the corresponding period in 1926 amounts to more than 4000 cars," said Mr. Hale. "This represents an average increase of 1000 cars a week, or considerably better than 100 a day."

"When it is recalled that these are retail sales figures, and not mere production totals, such a record seems to us highly significant."

Publish Team Individual Averages

The statisticians of the Narberth Baseball Club sharpened their pencils last week and prepared a complete table of percentages, covering the work of the individual players last season.

George Fleck leads with a .338 average, although Devellin, who played only six games, came out higher in the figures. Hanke, Humphries and Babb also broke .300.

Smith Scores Three Touchdowns
as L. M. H. S. Grid Men Take Another

The Maroon and White of Lower Merion continued in its victorious stride when it defeated the Wilmington High School, Saturday, on the home field at Ardmore. Hanging up its fourth straight victory did not prove to be a difficult task for Coach Adams' team.

Expected to be one of the season's hard games the contest was really disappointing. Wilmington sent up one of its weakest teams in years and instead of a hard-fought battle it proved to be only a workout for Lower Merion. It might be that this was fortunate for Coach Adams' men, as they certainly did not play their usual game.

Hostilities began when Captain Cook kicked off to Wilmington's 20-yard line. Failing to gain after two thrusts at the line Wilmington kicked to midfield. Here Lower Merion began its attack and in less than four minutes of actual play, had scored its first touchdown.

Ossie Smith and Bill Mearns were the big ground gainers in this advance. Mearns' contributions were thrusts off-tackle averaging about four yards, while Smith made one spectacular dash around end for 20 yards, and then went off for the first score. Cook's placement kick just failed to keep within the uprights, thereby losing the extra point. Wilmington again received, this time on its 10-yard line. Again the visitors failed to gain and were forced to punt. Lower Merion quickly reeled off two first downs with Smith, Mearns and Kohlhas carrying the ball. The advantage was of short duration, however, as Kohlhas was found holding and Lower Merion was forced to punt. Here the first period ended, the score 6-0 in L. M.'s favor.

L. M. Gains at Will.

The second period was nearly a repetition of the first with Lower Merion seeming to gain almost at will, but Lower Merion took things too easy. If it plays that way in some of its future games a different story will result.

After an exchange of punts Parker Lloyd came into the limelight with a spectacular return of a punt for about 25 yards, putting L. M. in position to score its second touchdown. This really was what happened, as Mearns and Smith quickly added the necessary yardage, with Smith going over for his second touchdown of the game. As the half ended with Wilmington in possession of the ball on its own 40-yard line, the score was Lower Merion 12, Wilmington 0.

Starting the second half conditions changed somewhat when Wilmington showed its only bit of offensive power in the whole game. After an exchange of kicks the visitors swept around the ends for three long gains. Reds McKelvey carried the ball; he was the only player of any experience that visitors had. Lower Merion was finally aroused and as the third period ended managed to hold for downs, taking possession of the ball on its own 10-yard line.

A poor pas from center resulted in a touchdown for the visitors as the fourth quarter got underway. After L. M. took the ball on its own 10-yard line, Mearns went back to kick, but the ball from center Scott was high over the fullback's head. Mearns leaped and caught it, but as he attempted to kick, the ball was blocked by the right end of the Wilmington team. This right end incidentally, G. Smith by name, played the best defensive game on the field.

This break gave Wilmington its touchdown and changed the complexion of the game momentarily. With the score now showing only a small difference the Maroon and White team again came to life and started a drive for another touchdown. Mearns, Kohlhas and Smith again figured in this advance, but it was Smith who finally went over for the score, his third of the game.

Tomorrow Lower Merion travels to Lansdowne High for one of its most important games of the season. Should the Adamites win, they will have a splendid chance for the suburban championship; should they lose they will be out of the running. Radnor beat Lansdowne in an upset game early in the season. The score was 12-0. Both teams played a slow, ragged game, as the writer recalls it, but it was the first contest for both Radnor and Lansdowne and the two have improved tremendously with the season's progress. Last week Lansdowne won from Ridley Park by a score 6-0. All in all it appears as if Coach Adam and his proteges will have their hands full when they meet Lansdowne. The mental attitude of the players will go a long way in deciding the game.

WELFARE CAMPAIGN

federation cause from as many billboards in every neighborhood; smaller posters and car cards will sound the call for co-operative help from subway and elevated platforms and 3000 or more subway and trolley cars; 50 moving picture reels entitled "The City Where Nobody Cares" will flash the message from as many movie screens; 300,000 buttons will read the good word from the lapels of thousands of men and women; posters symbolizing the federation aims and accomplishments will enlist the aid of thousands of workers in stores, mills and factories; hundreds of thousands of little reminders that the federation needs help now and throughout the year will greet the city's army of wage earners in their weekly pay envelopes; and the newspapers from the largest to the smallest will placard the city with the welfare cause.

The Welfare Federation this year presents 128 reasons why Philadelphia and its far-flung suburbs should give it the fullest endorsement.

Each of the 128 members of the federation "family" is doing its share for the common good of the entire community, and each, in its particular way, constitutes a separate reason why Philadelphians should aid them all in the united undertaking for better, happier, healthier, cleaner and wiser living.

This federation member is a hospital, that one cares for families in distress, a third makes life more livable for the shut-ins, a fourth finds a home for the child that has lost one. Each, because of its aim and accomplishments, presents an urgent reason for the continuance of its exertions as well as an urgent reason why a sympathetic public should stand loyally behind the enterprise.

It's a good enterprise, a big enterprise, an enterprise running into millions of dollars, this character-building, morale-promoting, life-saving work, but it is constantly growing, necessitating greater effort and greater encouragement.

This year the federation has accepted the membership of three more organizations: The Presbyterian Hospital, The Visiting Nurse Association of Eastern Delaware County and The Community Health Society of Central Delaware County. These agencies, while enlisting an added number of friends and supporters, increase the amount of money needed.

Furthermore, throngs of humble people whose homes have been brightened by a nurse's care, whose sick have been restored by hospital efficiency, whose troubles have been lifted by capable and sympathetic social work, have spread the good news to neighbors and friends who have similar problems and sorrows. This increased demand for service is taxing the facilities of the federation agencies beyond the point where they are equipped to operate humanely and successfully. The need is here; let's meet it!

On Tuesday the Battlers showed good form for their first game of the season and succeeded in keeping the Pilots out of harbor in three noble attempts.

The refinished alleys and new lighting gave the bowlers quite a thrill and we look for much higher scores during this season.

CASE IS SPEAKER

At Rotary Club Luncheon—District Governor Will Visit Next Week.

Walter G. Case, proprietor of the Narberth Electric Shop, was the speaker at Tuesday's luncheon of the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club. He told of having served his apprenticeship as an electrician when in charge of electrical work in the turrets and dynamo rooms of the battleships Michigan, Idaho and Arkansas at the New York Shipyard, 1913-18.

He met his wife in 1910, when her boat capsized at Woodland Park near Camden, and he rescued her. In 1918 he founded his electrical shop on Haverford avenue, in Narberth.

Visitors at Tuesday's Rotary luncheon were W. Russell Green, Narberth attorney; Rotarians Al Reinhold and Bill Kammerdize, of Ardmore, and Jim Stokes, of Moorestown, N. J.

Samuel Schmucker, District Governor, will pay his annual visit to the Bala-Cynwyd Club next Tuesday. Noted as a lecturer, he is expected to make an address in connection with the program for the meeting, of which he will be in charge.

PARTY COMMITTEES

A meeting of the Lower Merion Republican Committee will be held the latter part of this month to endorse the Republican county and township tickets nominated in the September primaries. No date for the meeting has yet been set but one will possibly be decreed this week by Squire I. Warner Arthur, chairman, and notices from Secretary William J. Byrnes, Jr., to all district committeemen will follow.

A meeting of the County Republican Committee in Norristown will also be held before the end of the month. In addition to going through the usual routine of endorsing the primary ticket this body will also have to select a new secretary to replace Judge Burnett Holland, who resigned upon his recent elevation to the Orphans' Court bench. Assistant District Attorney George Caldwell Corson is chairman of the county committee.

THE NEW ERA IN TELEPHONE COMMUNICATION

IT takes less than half as long to make an out-of-town call today as it did seven years ago.

The average time required in 1920 was four minutes. Today, it is less than two minutes.

If you called a point over 200 miles away in 1920, you waited about fifteen minutes for the connection.

Today very few such calls require as much as ten minutes, and most of them go through in less than five minutes.

An outstanding accomplishment!

Greater speed has brought a tremendous increase in the use of out-of-town service.

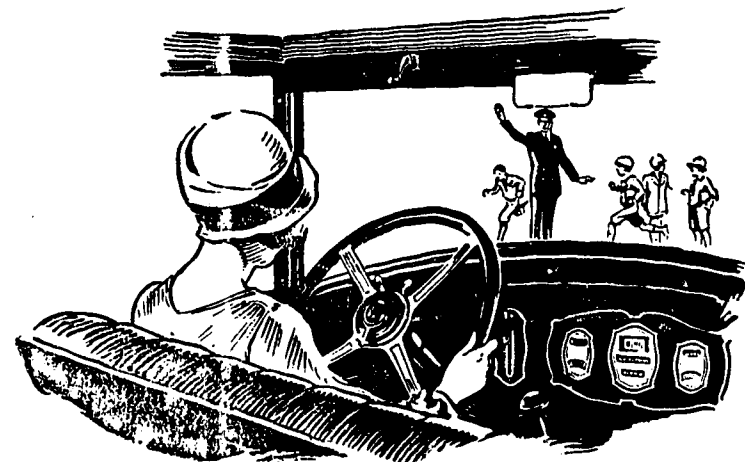

This new-era art is making neighbors of a whole nation—and already has brought within the sound of your voice practically the entire English-speaking world.

The dreaded "blind spot" is gone forever! In Buick for 1928 closed car front posts are narrowed so that all the road, ahead of you and at the side, is clear.

What a factor this is for safety! What extra pleasure it gives to driving! How it relieves city traffic problems—the sudden rush of a child... the unexpected appearance of a car at a corner... the negotiating of turns in crowded places!

And, thanks to the efficiency of Fisher craftsmanship, these slim corner posts have even greater strength than the type formerly used.

FEDERAL CONTROL IS NOT WANTED

Isaac R. Pennypacker Opposes Suggestion of Governor Fisher.

GETTYSBURG QUOTED

Disapproval of proposals to transfer control over Valley Forge Park from the State to the Federal Government was voiced by the Valley Forge Park Commission in a resolution presented at a meeting of the commission at Valley Forge, last week, by Isaac R. Pennypacker, of Ardmore, chairman and son of Dr. Isaac A. Pennypacker, who originated the movement for preservation of Washington's winter camp grounds.

The resolution, which passed unanimously, pointed to bad roads, wanton destruction and wholesale disgraceful conditions in Gettysburg battlefield since it was given into Federal control in 1895 by the Commonwealth, which had developed it.

It recalled how the Government had finally shifted the Gettysburg road problem back on the State, arguing that to relinquish care of "this holy ground" into control of the Federal Government would be to imperil present advancement of the work and present the possibility of throwing the burdens back again on the Commonwealth. Other States would press to erect unit memorials, the resolution added, "and experience shows Pennsylvania protests would fall then on deaf ears."

Governor Fisher several weeks ago suggested that the place where Washington's army suffered during the winter of 1777-78 be made a national shrine.

The Governor made his suggestion on September 8 while he was touring the State-owned and State-aided institutions of this section of the State.

Since the first of the month, a total precipitation of 5.16 inches is reported.

In spite of the cool nights, a temperature excess since October 1 of 32 degrees is recorded. Last year's temperature records for the same period showed a deficiency of 26 degrees.

POLICE HAVE BUSY SATURDAY NIGHT

Raid Victims and Careless Drivers Pack Ardmore Headquarters.

SQUIRE SITS TO 2 A. M.

A raid by Lower Merion police on alleged bootleg establishments in Ardmore and a series of motor accidents along Lancaster pike, followed by arrests for reckless and drunken driving, caused a busy three hours in police headquarters and the Magistrate's Court Saturday night. Hearings were granted the prisoners by Squire Kromer, of Cynwyd, who began sitting at 11 P. M. and the last case was not cleared up until 2 o'clock Sunday morning.

The first bit of business was brought in by the raiding party, which was composed of Police Lieutenant Mullin and Sergeants Brown and Wilson. They had arrested William Degives, 318 West Spring avenue, Ardmore; Clarence Reed, 214 Greenfield avenue, Ardmore and James Mills, 131 Walnut avenue, Ardmore, on charges of violating the prohibition enforcement law.

The raiding party testified that at Degives' place several jugs of wine had been found and that at Reed's the descent had yielded an assortment of bottles containing alleged liquors. When Mills' establishment was entered, the police declared they caught him trying to empty the contents of several bottles down a drain pipe.

All the entries were made on search warrants. The defendants, all of whom were colored, were each held in $400 bail for Court by the Magistrate.

The raid cases were followed by four others brought in by Officers James Neblett and Oliver Johnson. Those involved included George W. Cannon, Jr., of West Chester, who upon coming down Lancaster pike near the Green Hill Farms, shortly before 2 A. M. Sunday morning, drove his machine up on the sidewalk, smashed into a light pole and knocked it 30 feet from its moorings. As Neblett and Johnson were arresting Cannon, Gordon Jost, 1904 Pine street, Philadelphia, drove into two cars that had stopped at the scene of the first smash and wrecked these and his own machine. As the officers turned their attention to him, Thomas Frederick, 215 North Spangler street, Philadelphia, piled into the collection of cars with his machine and he was shortly followed by R. J. Hoyt, of Huntington Valley, who came down the pike so fast that he almost ran down all the others who had collected at the spot.

Cannon was charged with driving while intoxicated and was held in $400 bail for Court. Jost was accused on a similar count and was held in a like amount of bail. Frederick was charged with driving without brakes and was fined $25. Hoyt was booked for reckless driving and was also fined $25.

Another case heard by Squire Kromer before he closed Court for the morning was George Cannon, of 344 Aubrey road, Ardmore, who hit a car driven by Massey McGowen at Lancaster pike and Greenfield avenue in Ardmore, Saturday night. Charged with driving while intoxicated he was held in $400 bail for Court.

Welfare Posters

The publicity director of the Main Line division of the Welfare Federation wishes to express great appreciation to all the merchants from Overbrook to Paoli for their co-operation in displaying the Welfare posters in their windows. The courtesy and help will prove a great factor towards the success of the campaign.

Mrs. Richard R. Montgomery, of Wayne, and Miss Dorothea S. Mehl, of Ardmore, rendered valuable assistance in distributing these posters.

THE ROMANCE OF WOOD

"The 200-year-old homestead, the subject of John Howard Payne's famous song, 'Home, Sweet Home,' will be purchased by the village authorities of East Hampton, N. Y., and maintained as a shrine to the memory of the composer.

"'Home, Sweet Home,' as the old house is known, was owned by Gustave Buek, of New York. Buek died recently and the property was purchased by two New York women and an East Hampton man, whose names were not made public. They have agreed to turn the property over to the village at the price they paid the Buek Estate for it."

PHAMPHLETS BECOME BOOKS

The Narberth Library is handicapped in many ways by its lack of funds, but in none does it suffer more than in its inability to purchase books of nonfiction or those of a scientific or informational character. Such books are much needed, but are usually very expensive on account of the problems involved in the printing and because also of the expert or special knowledge contained in them.

Remembering the old adage about the "mother of invention," the library looks around among the material on hand, notifies Mrs. Jesse Harris, of Merion avenue whose official title is "assistant in charge of repairs and supplies," and the result is that a few cents worth of Government printing or of publishers' publicity, together with a fragment of her stock of supplies transforms a pamphlet of ephemeral use into a valued book. The process is simple. The pamphlets are provided with heavy covers, given a catalog number and all the accessories, and then assigned a place among the books on the shelves. This process lengthens the life of the pamphlets while at the same time it makes them more available to the public at a considerable saving of money to the library.

Last week there were displayed on the entrance counter shelves of the library several specimens of the work of Mrs. Harris. This "one woman exhibit" will be held over for another week and patrons are invited to stop and examine it.

GIRL SCOUTS RESENT CRITICISMS OF WOMEN

recognized high ideals to have one's name brought before the public in such a very uncomplimentary manner. I am wondering what the mothers of the Girl Scouts think of these criticisms.

"I confidently expect the thorough officials to leave the Girl Scouts in undisturbed possession of their quarters (of which they are so justly proud) in keeping with the terms of the agreement they accepted in accepting the gift of the building."

Ruth Hopkins, who has been a member of the Girl Scouts for the past five years, and who feels keenly the censure expressed in the meeting, has written an interesting letter in defense of the troop's activities. She says:

"According to an article in 'Our Town' issue of October 15, the Narberth Girl Scouts were criticised for 'about everything from selfishness to rowdiness at the October meeting of Council."

"As a member of the Girl Scouts for the past five years, I feel it is my privilege as well as my duty to take exception to the following charge: 'Often we cannot work in the library because of the rowdiness, the shouting, throwing of water from the windows and other noise.'

"The Narberth Girl Scouts' meetings are conducted as provided by the National Girl Scout regulations. The girls' conduct at these meetings is all that it should be and I think that such a charge is unfair to the Scouts and the troop record.

"In conclusion I mention the fact that since we have had the use of the community building, our meetings have been held Tuesday evening, which is not a library night. Therefore it is evident that there is some mistake."

A Year of Few Strikes.

There have been fewer strikes during the first half of 1927 than in any similar period for 12 years, according to the chairman of the industrial relations committee of the National Association of Manufacturers.

Probably this is one reason why the cost of living is a little lower than it was, although higher wages are being paid in many industries. Labor troubles add to the cost of commodities, not merely through higher wages, but by interruption of work and change of workers. One of the best ways of reducing production costs is for labor and capital to get along well together.

A little kerosene in clear water helps in window washing. Wash with even overlapping strokes and rub dry with soft paper or clean cloth. A rubber wiper can be used on large windows.

Will Lead Singers

John S. McConaghy, of Merion, was recently elected to fill the position of leader of the Haverford College Glee Club. McConaghy, who is a member of the class of 1928, heads the track team, is a member of the Founders' Club and has sung baritone with the Glee Club for a year. Before entering Haverford he was a member of the Penn Charter School Glee Club.

GETS PERMITS FOR 9 MERION HOUSES

Valley Road Project Costing $93,150 Will Be Built by E. L. Moore.

TWO IN MERION PARK

Construction of nine dwellings on Valley road, Merion, constitutes the bulk of this week's Lower Merion building operations, reported by Inspector C. E. Rahn's office, at the Township Building, in Ardmore. Evan L. Moore is owner and builder of the nine dwellings at an estimated cost of $10,000 each, and nine garages, at approximately $350 each, for which permits have been issued, on Valley road. The total of the operation is $93,150.

Fourteen permits, covering 31 operations, were issued by the building inspector during the week. They cover new work at an estimated cost of $149,647.

H. Martin Molony has permits for two dwellings and garages to be constructed in his development at Merion Park. One calls for an $18,000 house and garage at No. 515 Prescott road; the other for a $15,000 dwelling and $700 garage at No. 511 Putnam road.

For the New Home Realty Company, Tony White, of Ardmore, will construct a twin dwelling in West Manayunk at a cost of $8500. Stokes Brothers, of Germantown, will build a swimming pool and accessories for C. F. C. Stout, No. 214 Glenn road, Ardmore, at an estimated cost of $8000.

The Spanton Oil Company, of Philadelphia, will construct a service station at the northeast corner of Lancaster pike and Church road, Ardmore, $3000. Township Commissioner James A. Stretch has a permit for construction of a service station at the northeast corner of Montgomery pike and Old Gulph road, Narberth, $1000.

Alterations and additions amounting to $1500 will be made to Mrs. J. H. Perot's dwelling, at No. 15 St. Asaph road, Bala-Cynwyd, by G. L. and J. K. Callahan, of Rosboro. Alterations by Milton W. Young, of Philadelphia, for G. W. Rhoads, No. 115 Narbrook lane, Merion, will cost approximately $700. Advertising signs covered by permits this week are for W. B. Laird at Montgomery avenue and Old Gulph road, Narberth; William J. O'Brien, Lancaster pike and Church road, Ardmore, and Edwin McDermon, No. 273 Montgomery pike, Cynwyd.

women's clubs now occupy and their future. The keynote of her remarks was: do your task, no matter how humble, as though today was all, and that tomorrow did not exist. She stressed promptness, friendliness and efficiency as the true test of a good club woman.

Miss Ernestine B. Bacon, a member of the Matinee Musical Club, lyric soprano and winner of the 1927 State prize of the Federated Music Clubs, gave two groups of songs which were beautifully rendered and enthusiastically received. Her accompanist was Mrs. Joseph Stopp, of Overbrook.

The presidents of visiting clubs responding to introductions were: Mrs. J. H. Hyde, of the Lansdale Club; Mrs. J. J. Jones, of the Noble Club; Mrs. F. E. Fleck, of the Bryn Mawr Club; Mrs. Walter Supplee of the Bala-Cynwyd Club; Mrs. George P. Arms, of the Pottstown Club; and Mrs. S. E. Slocum, of the Ardmore Club.

The luncheon was served by Mrs. J. W. Darville, hospitality chairman, and her efficient committee. It was perfect in arrangement and greatly enjoyed. The meeting closed with singing the "Star-Spangled Banner."
